The screenshot shows the GxC web application interface. The top navigation bar includes a language dropdown set to 'English' and a user profile section for 'Pratomo Admin' with options to edit, delete, or view the profile. The sidebar on the left contains a list of menu items: Dashboard, Content, Category, Pages, Resource, Manage, User, and Settings. The 'User' menu item is expanded, showing sub-options: Create User, Manage Users, and Permissions. The 'Permissions' option is highlighted. The main content area displays the 'ASSIGNMENTS' section, which includes a table listing users and their roles.
